A Time to Dance by Padma Venkatraman - Patricia Hruby Powell A Time to Dance (Paulsen/Penguin 2014) by Padma Venkatraman is an insightful story about a dancer and a novel-in-verse set in a different culture—of course I'm going to review it. Veda is a teenage Bharatanatyam dance student in India.

A Time to Dance by Padma Venkatraman | Patricia Hruby Powell
A TIME TO DANCE is special because it's my first novel in verse, the first novel to look at a young girl's spiritual awakening through a Hindu lens, and because the girl in it dances like I wish I could (my ability to dance or sing or play the vina - a musical instrument I learned as a child is close to zero).
