For the 50th anniversary of the publication of Allen Ginsberg's Howl and Other Poems, the poet's archivist and biographer Morgan and City Lights publisher Peters, and City Lights (which was Howl's original publisher) have assembled this intermittently fascinating collection of documents, mostly related to the book's obscenity trial in San Francisco in 1957. These documents provides a coherent narrative of the composition of the poem, as well as the prosecution of publisher Lawrence Ferlinghetti and Howl on Trial: The Battle for Free Expression Edited by Bill Morgan and Nancy J. Peters. Introduction by Lawrence Ferlinghetti. City Lights Books. 2006. 224pp. "Howl" is an historical--long-winded, though evidently passionate--poem. A student (or poet) reading it today, in the scope of an oddly obligatory college assignment, might find it tedious.
