Bob Herbert's new book Losing Our Way: An Intimate Portrait of a Troubled America is one of the most important, most compelling books that I have read in many years. For those of us who have felt that something has gone seriously wrong in our country, Herbert connects the dots. He provides a carefully documented, well-written account of what went wrong and why.

If there is distance between two people and they want an intimate connection, there's only one way - and that is to tackle the core issues that they fear may destroy the relationship. Kenny Loggins, in his book The Unimaginable Life, asked the question – “How badly do you want an intimate relationship?”
