

Rawlinsons Construction Cost

Rawlinsons Construction Cost

Rawlinsons Construction Cost

Residential construction costs rose by 0.8 per cent over the first three months of 2021 as new home sales dropped 54.4 per cent during April.

Housing construction prices continue to rise as new home sales drop

As Australia continues to deal with the fallout from COVID-19, strong construction activity and supply disruptions have led to an increase in the cost of key building materials.

Rawlinsons Construction Cost

Residential construction costs rose by 0.8 per cent over the first three months of 2021 as new home sales dropped 54.4 per cent during April.

Housing construction prices continue to rise as new home sales drop

As Australia continues to deal with the fallout from COVID-19, strong construction activity and supply disruptions have led to an increase in the cost of key building materials.

Housing construction prices continue to rise as new home sales drop

Residential construction costs rose by 0.8 per cent over the first three months of 2021 as new home sales dropped 54.4 per cent during April.

As Australia continues to deal with the fallout from COVID-19, strong construction activity and supply disruptions have led to an increase in the cost of key building materials.