Ending the interview . While conducting an expert interview, how you begin and end the interview matters greatly. When ending an interview, there are a few things that you can do: Sincerely thank the interviewee for creating time to come for the interview. Ask the expert

if you can include their responses in your research in the future.

Expert Interview for College/University Students

The key is to leave questions open-ended. The last thing you want are one-word answers from someone with a wealth of knowledge. Think: Who, what, why, where, when, how. If you cover these bases in your SME interview questions, you'll have great material to work with afterwards.
